

Code of Practice for Junior Members

Silson Joggers AC is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Mel Bignell, Club Welfare Officer.

As a member of Silson Joggers AC, you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.

All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs, sexual identity or social/economic status. .

Members should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.

Members must wear suitable kit for training and events, as agreed with the coach/team manager.

Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.

Junior members are not allowed to smoke whilst training or representing the club at competitions.

Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or non prescription drugs of any kind whilst training or representing the club.

Supported by

Review: January 2010